

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 5, 2020

Media contact:

Andrea Freeman, Field Director

978-895-0960

afreeman@mapublichealth.org

MEDIA ADVISORY

Legislative Breakfast on Public Transportation and the Needs of Older Adults in Central Mass - Friday, March 13, 2020

- WHO: Community leaders, elected officials, transportation advocates, program managers, public transportation users, community members
- WHAT: A Legislative Breakfast on transportation and the needs of older adults/seniors. This event is free and open to the public. To RSVP, click <https://tinyurl.com/NorthCentralTranspoMar13> or call 857-930-4369
- WHEN: March 13, 2020, 8:00 AM-10:00 AM
- WHERE: Veterans' Center, 100 West Street, Leominster
- SPONSORS : Massachusetts Public Health Association
CHNA9/Community Health Network for North Central Mass
Heywood Hospital
Montachusett Regional Planning Commission
Massachusetts Councils on Aging
Massachusetts Healthy Aging Collaborative
Transportation for Massachusetts
Tufts Health Plan Foundation
WalkBoston
- WHY: Equitable access to transportation is essential for good public health. Public transportation provides access to critical resources, including jobs, schools, grocery stores, social services, substance use disorder treatment, and more. ###